Save the Date

INDIGENOUS Education Series Workshop
Impacts of Colonization in Canada

February 16, 2022 - April 6, 2022

(8) Two-Hour Virtual Sessions on Wednesday evenings from 7pm - 9pm

Learn about: Canada's history of colonization, systemic oppressions of Indigenous Peoples of Canada such as Residential Schools, explore the CWL's role in truth & reconciliation, and allyship with Indigenous communities.

Only 100 Spots Available!

(Registrants must be able to commit to all 8 sessions.)

Developed and presented by sought-after keynote speaker and social justice expert Amanda DiFalco, who is also an accredited educator dedicated to raising awareness on Indigenous Issues in Canada. Amanda will be joined by Indigenous Elder Wilamina McGrimmond, Frog Clan, Tl'az'ten Nation. Wilamina McGrimmond serves as a spiritual healer, warrior for missing and murdered women and girls, and also an advocate for Indigenous issues in Canada.

Registration for CWL Members

January 28, 2022 - February 6, 2022

Councils and/or members are invited to join us in making a CWL Group donation to the Native Women's Association of Canada. Your name and/or your council's name will be added as one of the donors.

For Registration and donation details contact Teresa at firstvp@cwlhamilton.ca OR 905-643-6819

Sponsored by the Hamilton Diocesan Executive Council - The Catholic Women's League of Canada